

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

Master of Business Administration

Portland
State
University

The Portland State University campus is located in the center of downtown Portland, selected in 2000 Money Magazine as the “Best Place to Live” in the United States.

Portland, Oregon

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

Portland, Oregon

Portland, Oregon

“Being a graduate student in Portland State’s MBA Program has been an enlightening experience. The course work is progressive and fosters mastery of concepts essential to success in the business world. The knowledge acquired has enabled me to excel in my career as well as explore new career options.”

Joy C. Fowler,
National Corporate Service Officer
U.S. Bank

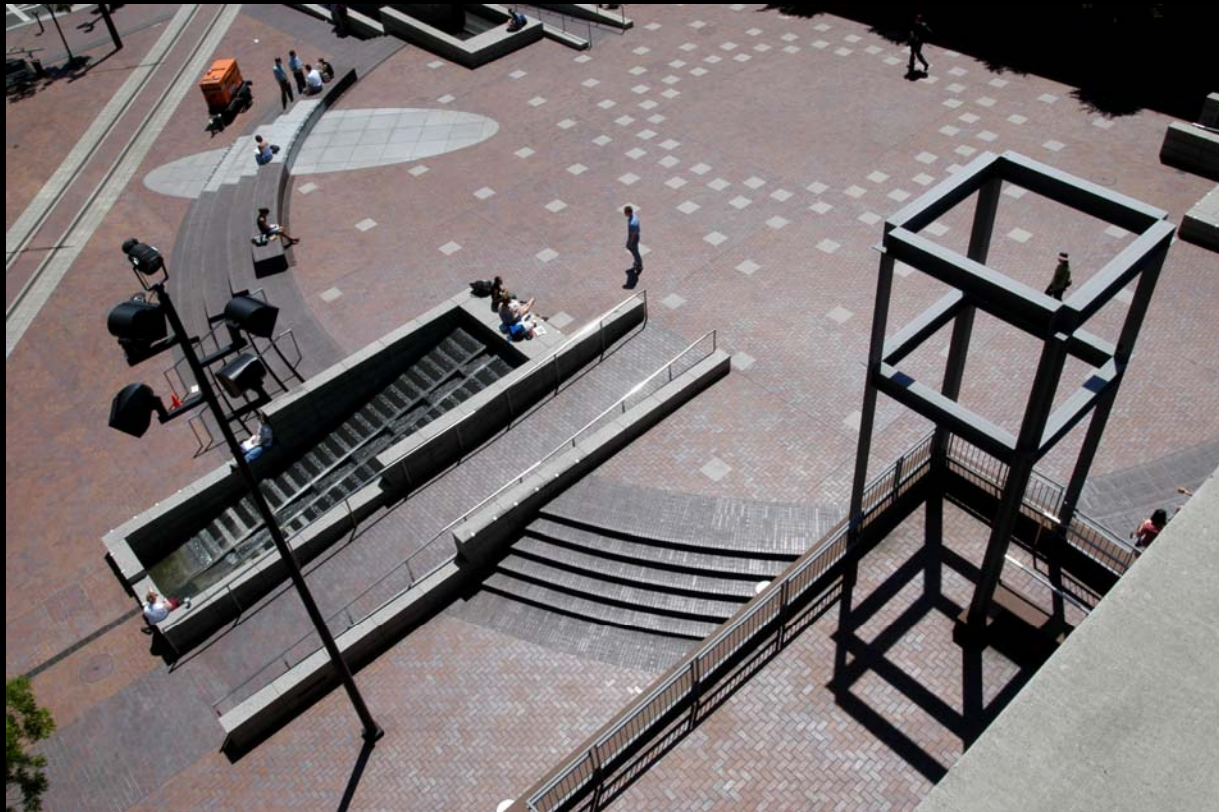

Portland State University Park Blocks

Portland State University: Simon Benson House

Portland State University: Urban & Public Affairs

"As Intel's Director of Northwest Operations, I can tell you that Intel depends on the School of Business for hiring many new managers and providing continual professional managerial education for current employees."

Ray Guenther,
Director, Northwest Operations
Intel Corporation, MBA '83

Portland State University: Millar Library

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

Portland State University: Lincoln Hall

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

Portland State University: Shattuck Hall

"In the School of Business we are committed to maintaining an upward trajectory in research productivity by our faculty. Careful hiring practices and creating structures that encourage research are moving us toward this goal. As reflected by these web pages, I believe that we already have much to be proud of and have great potential for the future."

Scott Dawson, Ph.D.

Dean, School of Business Administration

Portland State University

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

School of Business Administration Building

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

School of Business Administration Building

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

School of Business Administration Building

Graduate business programs in the School of Business at Portland State University are grounded in the values of the schools' mission:

- to educate students in business theory and practice, leadership and the skills for lifelong learning
- to engage in scholarly research critical to the success of business and organizations
- to collaborate with both the urban and regional communities in the development and application of business knowledge

In the Classroom

In the Classroom

In the Classroom

"I learned a lot from my professors and from the people I was in class with. They all had jobs in various industries, so the discussions involved real-life situations about the way people were handling things at work. We were able to apply the tools we were learning at PSU almost the next day."

Frank Rego, MBA Graduate '99,
Director of Business Development/General Manager
WireXness Development/General Manager
WireX

In the Classroom

In the Classroom

Newly admitted to MBA program for Fall 2003:

- Average GMAT Score for Full-time program: 627
- Average GMAT Score for both Full-time and Part-time programs: 610
- Average GPA: 3.22
- Full-time: 57%
- Part-time: 43%
- Female: 34%
- Male: 66%
- International students: 18%

SBA Scholarship Dessert

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

SBA Scholarship Dessert

SBA Scholarship Dessert

“The School has a unique ability to listen – to the needs of the business community, to the needs of the students, and to the needs of economic development of the region. The School of Business at PSU is on the move.”

Ron King,
President and CEO
Western Family Foods

SBA Hooding Ceremony

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

SBA Hooding Ceremony

School of Business Administration
At Portland State University

SBA Hooding Ceremony

