*Note: Actual out-of-pocket expenses will vary depending on the type of housing reserved (studio, double or triple), actual airfare available at the time you book your flights, restaurant selections, travel before and after the program and extent of weekend travel in the Provence Region. A city bus (#21) is available between the student residency hotel and the university campus at a cost of approximately $1 each way.

Financial Aid

Financial Aid is available through Portland State University. Please contact Andrea Price to discuss qualification and procedures necessary in order to use your aid for this program. As a general rule, financial aid is restricted by what is allowed by the University and by the agencies backing such aid, including the federal government. In general, financial aid is allowed for any expenses relating to education.

Travel to Marseille

Most students choose to fly into Paris and take the TGV train to Marseille. The train takes approximately 3 ½ hours between central Paris and the St.Charles train station in central Marseille. This will give you the opportunity to spend a few days in Paris and recover from jet lag before coming to Marseille. For the return flights, many students returned to Paris, but some choose to fly back home from Barcelona, Zurich, Nice, Milan, Florence or Rome. This is called an "Open Jaw" ticket. Your travel agent can provide details. Train service is available from Marseille to each of these cities.

Train Travel in France

France has EXCELLENT, high speed train service throughout the country. Consult your travel agent or the internet for point-to-point fares and for train passes (EurailPass). Rick Steve's Back Door Guide to European Railpasses is an excellent guide to train travel in Europe (www.ricksteves.com), see "Planning Your Trip", and it is free!
