School of Business Administration (SBA) invites all undergraduate, post-baccalaureate and graduate students who are admitted or who will be admitted to the SBA by Fall term 2005 to apply for scholarships for the 2005-2006 academic year. In order to receive award, students must be enrolled in classes for each corresponding term.

To apply, complete this application form. If you are an undergraduate student, your application should be accompanied by official transcripts (photocopies accepted) for only those college and/or university credits you have yet to transfer into PSU. If you are a post-baccalaureate student or a graduate student, attach official transcripts (photocopies accepted) from each college and/or university (except PSU) attended after high school.

Two complete sets (application and supporting documents) must be submitted to SBA 240 no later than March 1, 2005. Send the completed application packet to Portland State University, School of Business Administration, Attn: Scholarship Committee, P.O. Box 751, Portland, OR 97207-0751.

Upon receipt of your application you will be considered for most scholarships offered through the SBA including those scholarships which are specific to your chosen business option. For a listing of differentiated scholarships and their corresponding applications, visit <http://www.sba.pdx.edu/resources/scholarships/differentiated.html>.
